God Provides, You Give, Lives are Changed

A Year End Testimony about giving
(Excerpts from church member testimony)

[In the past] I would give when my heart felt like it and we [my husband and myself] would have heated discussions about whether we were going to have enough money for living expenses. The first three categories in our budget are 1. Church 2. Charity 3. Gifts for others. So I now have guidelines. My spouse can be assured that our giving is in the budget and we won't go hungry. FPU has opened up the lines of communication. We now understand each other's expectations and what is most important to the other. Are we going to keep a budget? Yes, because it is a cooperative tool that promotes positive communication and working as a team. Will the budget change? Yes. As life changes, we will need to adjust our expenses. But we now have the knowledge to approach those changes as needed.

In closing, one last thought. During our married years, we have always given to the church the first Sunday of the month. Since I wrote the checks and kept track of our finances, I would try to give according to our income (without discussing with my spouse). We have never had a budget. Wow! God has always provided for our needs. God, you have blessed us beyond measure! A big Thank You to my spouse! You have always had to have faith that I knew what I was doing. Dear God, I am grateful that you had my back, and help us to be faithful with what you have given us to manage! Amen.
